Vice President's Name Tag Draw

I want to get to know you and to encourage everyone to get to know each other while we share our love of quilting. This September I introduced the name tag draw. We will pick a name from all the regular members in attendance and the prize will be $10. The prize money will accumulate each month until it is won!

So get to work and make a name tag or order a guild one from our membership team and let's get to know each other.

Gwenne Pottier, Vice President

Prizes!!

Come and enjoy our annual Christmas Party

There will be “mingling and jingling”, lots of prizes, a few games and refreshments.

Happy Holidays!

FUNDRAISER!

The Guild will once again be holding a fundraiser for the GLOUCESTER EMERGENCY FOOD CUPBOARD (GEFC). We will be collecting toothpaste, toothbrushes and other toiletries at our November and December meetings.

This fundraiser has become a very special event for the GEFC. It is important to note while the GEFC has a budget to purchase essential food such as milk, eggs, etc., they do not purchase toothpaste, toothbrushes and other toiletries. When these items are delivered to the GEFC, it creates a buzz with the volunteers and even brings smiles to their faces.

These items will be distributed to clients as a little extra during the Xmas season. Since the Guild has been doing this Fundraiser, the GEFC has been able to provide all clients with toothbrushes and toothpaste during December.

A huge thanks to all Guild members for their Generous Support of this initiative over the years!!!

Guild Executive

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

VICKI ROSS

Well, I guess that Merry Christmas or Seasons Greeting are in order:

I have been so busy this fall that I didn't realize that until today—my Brother's birthday - that Christmas is less than a month away. His birthday signified that Christmas was just around the corner when I was growing up.

I have barely started my Christmas sewing—are you behind as well? I have the families pj's to sew, bowl cozies, travelling placemats and a dog jacket to design and sew. This does not include the Guild's Mystery block for December (OK the November block as well) and another block of the month that I am participating in.

The first party for me this year is the Guild's social that we will hold for December meeting. I hope to see you there. It is bound to be a lot of fun.

Again this year, we are collecting for the under privileged: toothpaste and toothbrushes, shampoo, warm socks, mitts and hats are always appreciated.

See you soon! Happy preparations!

A QUILTY "ROAD TRIP" ADVENTURE

Original Design by Laura Malo

DECEMBER

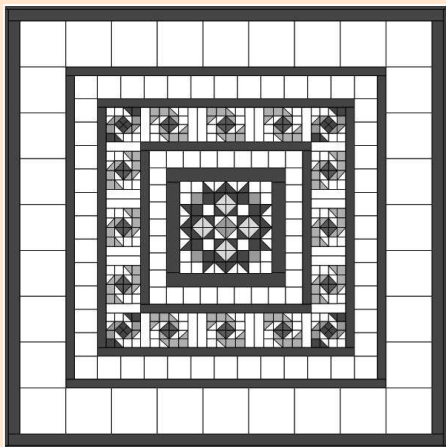

Happy Holidays to all. We are all so busy at this time of year so don't stress over the Challenge quilt. Take your time and enjoy the process. You will have plenty of time to catch up. This month I will be presenting the second blocks for the last round (because the last round has a lot of blocks). As in the first blocks of this round, the low road blocks are pieced and the high road blocks are improvisational (improve). You will find the directions for the "low road" and the "high road" under the Guild Activities tab (Challenge Quilt) on the CTQG website.

- ♦ You can choose to make either the high road blocks or the low road blocks or you can make a block of your choice (same size). This month we are making 16 blocks measuring 8" finished - 8 1/2" raw. OR
- ♦ If you waited to see the second block in this round — make the whole round with the December block - just make 16 more of the low road blocks or 16 more high road blocks.
- ♦ The instructions for all months will remain of the website so that you can jump in at any time.

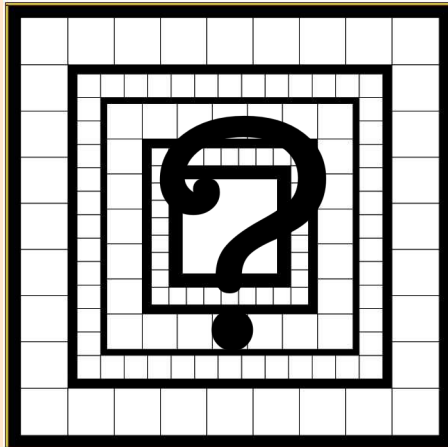

We would love to see your blocks - post them on our facebook page.

I hope you are enjoying this challenge and if you have any questions, or need assistance, please contact me at ctqg.programme@gmail.com.

Quilt Shop Bus Trip (Shop Hop) Summary

organized by Shirley Geiger

Once again, those of us who were able to participate in the Nov. 2 Shop Hop had a great day!

Thanks to the generosity of our 4 host shops: Quilters Barn and Gifts, Giroux Sewing Centre, Auntie Em's Scrapbooking and Gifts, and Ron's Fabrics, all of us came home with more than we had planned.

Quilters Barn opened early and sent us all home with loot bags packed with goodies. All the shops had either discounts/specials, or fabric/gift certificates for bus prizes, and lots of staff to help us spend our money! I don't know if it was the extra staff or the contagious atmosphere of shopping quilters, but it was amazing how quickly we packed the overhead bins on that bus!

Lunch was enjoyed at the King George Restaurant, another opportunity to get to know each other better.

Thanks also to Karin Styler-Galama for donating 2 t-shirt decals for bus prizes. We had fun playing games, but I think I had more fun handing out the goodies.

And because every story needs some drama, there were some heartbeats quickening when our bus had to pull over to the side of the road due to dragging a piece of metal. Many thanks to Fadia who came to our rescue with her bright red scarf!

I won't tell you how much we spent – that's a secret! We lightened our wallets, contributed to the economy, and spent a wonderful day together. Thank you ladies for the camaraderie.

And how much did we spend? The guesstimates ranged from $1400 - $7500. The total was somewhere in between, but there will be no reveal here, as spouses might be reading this! Suffice to say that there was a picture.

- The books are divided into five categories: patchwork, applique, instructional, specialty and art.
- The library opens around 6:20pm and closes at 7:15pm so that we may return the books to the cupboard before the meeting starts. (The hours also depend on how many volunteers we have to take books out and put the books back.)

CTQG 2020 QUILT SHOW: “Stories in Stitches”

Our next quilt show is called Stories in Stitches. We have a committee in place and have started in on planning the show. First, a reminder of a couple key points.

- ♦ The show will again take place at the Cityview Curling Club on Capilano Drive. We are hoping to learn from our first show as well as the Ottawa Valley guild's experiences to make this show a great one.
- ♦ The show this year will be a two-day show, running Friday May 8th from 10 till 7 and Saturday May 9th from 10 till 5.

I am happy to announce that this year, we will be offering the opportunity for members to have their quilts judged! We have arranged for an apprentice judge to assist in this regard. She will provide written comments on judged quilts. Members may submit any or all of their show quilts for judging. There will be a modest fee of $10/quilt for these quilts to offset the cost of the honorarium paid to the apprentice judge.

And speaking of quilts, here are the details as to what can be submitted!

Members may submit up to four quilts. In order to take into consideration comments from the last show that quilts were placed too close together, members may submit one quilt in each of the Large Bed, Medium Bed and Modern categories. This limitation should allow us to expand the space in between rows and giving viewers a better opportunity to admire the quilts. Quilts can be submitted in the following categories (dimensions and criteria for each are provided).

- ♦ Large Bed – Perimeter of 350” or more
- ♦ Medium Bed – Perimeter of 349” or less
- ♦ Children's Theme/Crib – the intended use would be for a child's room, either as a wall hanging or a small bed quilt. Any technique may be used
- ♦ Wall hanging – A quilt that is designed to be hung for decorative purposes. New this year – there is one category for wall quilts regardless of the technique(s) used
- ♦ Miniature – Perimeter of 96” or less. If blocks are used, they must be 4” or less. A bound full-sized block is not considered a miniature, nor is a hexie quilt made of pieces of ½” or greater. The overall pattern must show a miniaturization of a quilt.
- ♦ Modern – Modern quilters embrace functionality, simplicity and minimalism. Characteristics might include use of bold colours and prints, high contrast and graphic areas of solid colours, improvisational piecing, minimalism, expansive use of negative space and alternate grid work.
- ♦ Assorted Quilted Items – This category includes quilted clothing, placemats and runners, pillows, bags, etc. Note that two items submitted in this category are considered one entry for the show.

Stay tuned for additional information regarding the show, including how to submit your quilts.

Quilt Show Co-ordinator

Community Projects Update on the Challenge / Contest

Lynn and I want to start this message by saying "THANK YOU" to our members for rising to our "quilt kit" challenge!

DID YOU KNOW?

This is how our Fat Quarter Club works. Each month there is a theme. You bring your fat quarter that you are donating to the fat quarter table at the back of the meeting room. You will be given a ticket for each fat quarter you give us and you will be asked to write your name on the back of the ticket(s) which will be put into a draw to win all of that night's donated fat quarters. The draw will be held at the start of the meeting.

Your fat quarter should reflect the theme or contain one of the theme colours. At the discretion of the Fat Quarter team there may be more than one draw if the number of received fat quarters allows.

Each month's winner(s) is asked to make a quilt, any size or shape, using some or all fabrics in your fat quarter bundle. You may add your own fabric.

Completed quilts may participate in our year end (June meeting) viewers' choice contest to determine the winning quilt. The winner receives a cash prize.
