President's Message

December! It's a time to sum up the past year and start looking forward to a new, hopefully more open new year.

The past year has been difficult by any measure. But many of us have new quilts to show for the lockdowns. I, for one, have a few new projects in progress. I look forward to seeing your works during 'show and share' on our next few zoom meetings. Take a photo before wrapping up any quilts or sewn decorations being given away!

We had so hoped to meet in-person for our December Guild meeting. The Executive made the decision to continue virtual meetings to give us the cushion of another couple of months before over 100 of us would gather together. The Guild will always meet over zoom for January and February. Zoom gives us access to so many speakers from anywhere in the world. And no nighttime winter driving.

I hope you have been kind to yourself. Many people are experiencing mental health issues brought on by the loss of regular activities and keeping away (even fearing) being with others. If you are experiencing the pleasure of getting out once again, I encourage you to reach out to someone who might be feeling the isolation has shaken their ability to cope. Christmas and Passover are expected to be happy times. For those feeling dark, the expectations can feel all the more hopeless. A phone call, a plate of cookies or a mug rug show that no one is forgotten.

In the spirit of caring and friendship, I wish you all Merry Christmas! Happy Chanukah!

Keynote Presentation

Carolina Oneta

Hello, I am Carolina. I'm the mother of three wonderful children, two girls and one boy, and wife of a wonderful and loving husband, whom I have loved for 23 years.

I was born in Chile in the picturesque village of Valparaíso, where I had a beautiful childhood alongside my dear parents and my siblings.

Even though it isn't related at all to what I do today, I am an Industrial civil engineer. I worked for 5 years in logistics and when my first daughter was born I changed to teaching, a job that let me spend more time with my daughter and, later on, with my son, too. For five years, I taught engineering students in the same university that formed me.

After five years of teaching, because of my husband's work, we left Santiago and moved to Buenos Aires, Argentina. In Buenos Aires, I had the incredible opportunity of learning patchwork with Teresita Leal and Cecilia Koppman, known Argentinian quilters. Every week I had classes to learn the innumerable and varied quilting techniques.

I have always liked constantly learning and perfecting myself and, in this new activity in my life, I keep on doing it. That is why every February I travel to the United States to the Festival of Modern Quilting «Quiltcon» where I go to different classes, workshops and talks with known international quilters. This allows me to constantly create new ideas and techniques, and to see and be able to take quilting towards a more modern and actual place. I also studied «Color Interaction» with Professor and artist Eduardo Vilches in the Universidad Católica in Santiago, Chile.

In 2015 we went back to Santiago where, for 4 years, I worked in my own studio, and with Janome, I have been creating and constantly giving new workshops to promote quilting in Chile.

My quilts have been exhibited in many Quilt Festivals around the world, such as Quilt Week (Paducah, Lancaster, Des Moines, Daytona Beach, Grand Rapids, Virginia Beach), Quiltcon, Festival of Quilts in Birmingham, European Carrefour do Patchwork, Fiberart International, Festival do Patchwork Gramado and Floripa Quilt Festival (both in Brazil). Additionally, my work has been featured at art centers and galleries in Europe, USA and Chile. I love to teach online quilting and design classes, and I also create many on demand classes for those who need to learn at their own pace and time. Online classes allow me to connect with students from many different countries, which is a very enriching experience.

I currently live in São Paulo, Brazil, where I have my own studio, from where I am continuously creating and developing my art and teaching that WE ARE ALL CREATIVE.

I invite you to look around my website, to learn about quilters all around the world and to get interesting insights about modern quilting, art and creativity.

2020/2021 Common Thread Quilt Guild Challenge: Globetrotter

Good day quilters, this is your captain speaking. We're a few months into our globetrotter challenge and I hope everyone is enjoying your time learning about your mystery destination, playing with a specific (and limited) colour palette and dreaming of patterns and design options. Let imagination and creativity be your guide on this unique quilting adventure. Just don't forget that even flights of fancy have rules.

You are limited to the colours of your assigned flag but there are no limits on the number of fabrics. Prints are fine, as long as they read solid from a distance. You can use the colours in any proportion, even just in the binding. You can also add up to two neutral colours such as white, black, grey, beige, cream or ecru. Your finished item, whether a wall-hanging or travel accessory must be quilted but can be multimedia if you would like to add some extra elements or accents. And while the maximum size of your wall-hanging is 96", eg. 24" square, you are free to go smaller.

We have reached our maximum cruising altitude and will arrive at our destination in March. If you've already joined us on this journey, then I hope you have been enjoying the experience. There are still spots available if you want to explore new destinations in fabric. Just email ctqg.challenge@gmail.com for your free ticket to parts unknown.

Thank you for traveling with the Common Thread Quilt Guild.

LIBRARY NEWS

Janice Namiesniowski & Judy Loree

We will no longer be hosting library days during the months that Guild is done virtually by Zoom. The library service which was provided, has not been utilized by members as much as we had hoped. We can no longer justify the cost in rental and in volunteer time to provide library days.

During months when the guild meetings are done in person, we will again provide the library service.

Please return all outstanding library items to Janice's house at 6151 Rivermill Cres., Orleans.

Happy quilting.

Janice and Judy

ACCUQUILT DIE LENDING...

When the guild decided to purchase the Accuquilt GO!

Cutter and accessories, the decision was made that the equipment would only be available to use at SewDays and Retreats. We wanted the dies and mats to always be available to members, and the cutter required some instruction and supervision.

The pandemic has made us rethink that decision. Starting immediately, the dies and mats are available to borrow for 2 weeks at a time. The cutter is not available, so this offer is only for members who have, or can borrow, a GO machine.

If you check under Resources on the guild website, you will see the link for Accuquilt <http://commonthreadquiltguild.ca/accuquilt-fabric-cutter/> . There is a lengthy list of available dies.

You can look at the photos members have submitted, or go to the Accuquilt website

<https://www.accuquilt.com/> for ideas and tips.

Please email ctgg.sewdays@gmail.com if you would like to borrow a die. The equipment is being kept near the Montreal Road exit of the 174. Day or evening pickup is available. Members only, and you will have to show your membership card or a piece of id, and complete a borrowing form similar to a library card.

COMMUNITY PROJECTS

Carole Maisonneuve & Lynn Strban

Though Christmas is still several weeks away, we know that everyone is starting to feel the holiday "frenzy". In light of that, Community Projects would like to take the time to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and soon to be Happy New Year.

And while you are busy getting ready to celebrate with family and friends, take the time to relax and enjoy the Holiday Season.

Lastly, though we are not doing another "quilt drop off day" until sometime later in the New Year, below is a reminder of the quilt sizes we need.

Be safe and be well!

Bed quilts, cuddle quilts and wheelchair quilts:

Cuddle quilts – 22" square

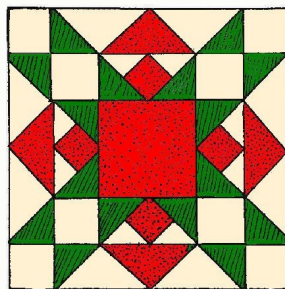

Children (age 5 to young teenage) – anywhere from 40"x40" up to 60"x72" (older teens can be tall)

Adult - Twin sizes "60" x 75" would be appreciated as many of our organizations have single beds.

Wheelchair quilts – 36"x36 up to 40"x40".

Regardless of the sizes listed above, we will not turn any of your quilts away!

Warmest Regards,
Lynn and Carole

We are hopeful that in January 2022 we will be able to have our delicious homemade meals once again.

SEW AND SHARE

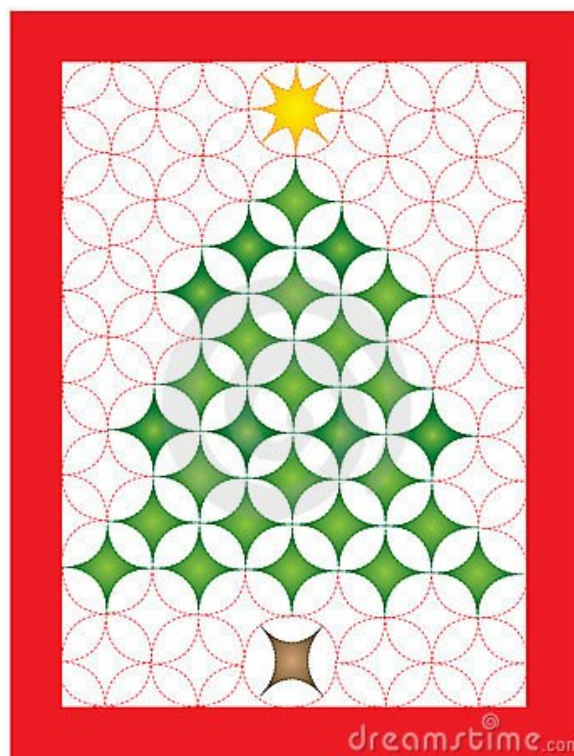

Show and share? I am still looking forward to this section of the program night. I hope you are too! I always like a chance to see what everyone has made.

Please send a well lit photo of your quilt/quilted items that we will then share on the screen. Please be sure to send in your name, the name of the quilt/quilted item and a great picture of the full item and one close-up of your favourite part of the quilt.

I will take those photos and create a slide to be shared on zoom. No need to worry about showing up on camera, I will share your photos online and ask you to "unmute" your line to take 1 minute to share about your item.

The slides will also be shared on the private Facebook group after the guild meeting so you can zoom in and take a closer look at them. Send the details by the Sunday before the meeting to: ctgg.programme@gmail.com

WORKSHOPS

Sandra Baynes & Dorothy DeRose

Our workshops for 2020 have been completed. Early in November nineteen members of Common Thread Quilt Guild spent a great day with Jennie Rayment making a few Christmas decorations.

We have two workshops scheduled for early in 2022. First up is Fantastic Fusion with Lisa Walton from Australia and then we have our Dresden Neighbourhood workshop with Michelle Banton from the United States. Holding virtual workshops has certainly allowed us to source expertise world-wide!

You will receive a confirmation email in return. Payment instructions will follow, as well as any preparation instructions.

2022 QUILT SHOW MEMBERS' MARKET

Unfortunately there was not enough interest from members in order to have the Member's Market at the 2022 Quilt Show.

Virtual workshop – Fantastic Fusion – January 26 and February 2, 2022

Sign-up deadline – December 17, 2021

How about something that looks really complicated but just might be easier than it looks. No sewing is required to create this unique quilt top. All fabric is fused together and then the quilting is what holds it together. Learn to cut with no rulers and create your own original quilt.

This class will teach you how to use fusible web to allow freedom of design.

With basic colour and design principles, Lisa will show us a REALLY SIMPLE technique of cutting and layering fabrics to create designs that would be incredibly difficult using traditional piecing techniques. Once your piece is all together and it's time to move on to the quilting, Lisa will show us how to do improvised quilting and an easy but professional facing technique to finish your quilt.

Instructor: Lisa Walton (Australia)

Location: Zoom (Virtual)

Time: 6:00 to 9:00 pm both evenings

Date: Wednesdays; January 26 and February 2, 2022

Cost: $50 for members, $60 for non-members

Skill level: Anyone looking to learn a new technique and have fun

Minimum number: 16 participants

Maximum number: 23 participants

Notes: Preparation of fabric will be required before class

Register: On-line, by sending an email to ctqg.workshops@gmail.com .

Virtual workshop –Dresden Neighbourhood – February 5, 2022

Sign-up deadline – December 17, 2021

This workshop was previously declared full but one space has become available.

In this workshop, we will build a Neighbourhood of houses based on the traditional Dresden Plate block. Each neighbourhood will be unique – based on your own creativity, color choices, etc. The wall quilt will finish at approx. 24" square (but can easily be made larger or smaller).

This project is very scrap-friendly and doesn't need any obscure tools or gadgets. You can use a Dresden Plate ruler (if you have one) or just use templates.

Instructor: Michelle Banton (USA)

Location: Zoom (Virtual)

Time: 9:30 to 3:30 with a lunch break

Date: Saturday, February 5, 2022

Cost: $55 for members, $65 for non-members, including the pattern

Skill level: Anyone looking to learn a new technique and have fun

Minimum number: 12 participants

Maximum number : 23 participants

Notes: Preparation and choosing of fabric will be required before class

Quilters Coffee Chat

Interested in being randomly matched with another member of our guild to talk about quilting or whatever else interests you? Then sign up for the Quilters Coffee Chat.

I'll be pairing up members once again this month. You and your match can decide to have a call virtually or by regular telephone. You may even learn something new about quilting - or help someone out.. I talked about a particular project and learned I should consider a different type of quilting pattern.. I'm rather glad I found this out before I got started.

So email me at ctgg.workshops@gmail.com. Put in the subject line Quilters Coffee Chat. I will send out the pairs by email (TBD). You can then reach out to your match. Make the call, say, 15 to 30 minutes.

Have fun!

2022 QUILT SHOW: "STORIES IN STITCHES"

Catherine Pope, 2022 Quilt Show Coordinator

I am pleased to provide an update on our next quilt show, Stories in Stitches. Our Quilt Show Team is working hard to plan the upcoming show. First, a reminder of a few key points:

- ◆ The show will take place at the City View Curling Club at 50 Capilano Drive, Nepean. Just east of Merivale.
- ◆ The 2022 show will be a three-day show, running from Friday, May 6th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, May 7th 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, May 8th 11a.m. to 4 p.m.
- ◆ The 2022 Quilt Show will follow the Provincial Guidelines for Social Gatherings.

We will be offering the opportunity for members to have their quilts judged. We have arranged for an apprentice judge to assist in this regard. She will provide written comments on judged quilts. For judging there will be a selection of 2 quilt categories which will be: Bed quilt (any type) and/or Wall Quilt. There will be a modest fee of $10/quilt for these quilts to offset the honorarium paid to the apprentice judge. More information re: Quilt Judging to come in future newsletters .

Here are the details as to what quilts can be submitted to the Show: Members may submit up to four quilts. In order to take into consideration comments from the last show that quilts were placed too close together, members may submit one quilt in each of the Large, Medium and Modern categories. This limitation should allow us to expand the space in between rows and giving viewers a better opportunity to admire the quilts. Quilts can be submitted in the following categories (dimensions & criteria for each are provided):

1. Large: A quilt with a perimeter of 350" or greater
2. Medium: A quilt with a perimeter of 349" or less
3. Modern: Modern quilters embrace functionality, simplicity, and minimalism. Characteristics might include use of bold colors and prints, high contrast and graphic areas of solid colors, improvisational piecing, minimalism, expansive negative space and alternate grid work.
4. Wall Quilts: A quilt that is designed to be hung for decorative purposes, with a perimeter of 180" or less
5. Miniature: The quilt must have a perimeter less than 96" total. If blocks are used, they must be 4" or less. A bound full-size block is not considered a miniature, neither is a hexie quilt made with pieces ½" or greater. The overall pattern must show a miniaturization of a quilt.
6. Assorted Quilted Items: This category includes quilted clothing, placemats and runners, pillows, etc.
7. Children's Theme/Crib: Intended use would be for a child's room, either as a wall hanging or a small bed quilt. All techniques.

Our space is limited, so we may have to limit entries to three per member. Please indicate on your registration form, which quilt you prefer to be withdrawn if need be. The committee reserves the right to move an entry to a different category if appropriate. If you have any questions about quilt categories please contact us through the Quilt Show email at: ctqg.quilt.show@gmail.com.

Please, ENTER your quilts! Your quilts make the show a success!

When you receive your new 2022 calendars at Christmas, be sure to add that the Quilt Show is on Mother's Day weekend in May and add the dates that you would like to volunteer at the Show!
