PROGRAMME INFORMATION—Brett Lewis (Natural Born Quilter)

Hello all guild members. Here we are in March already. I am definitely looking forward to warmer days ahead, hopefully soon. My goal each month is to bring some colour and maybe a little something different into our artistic activities.

This month we have Brett Lewis, Natural Born Quilter speaking with us via Zoom. Avid Quilter and Fabric Designer, Brett Lewis, aka Natural Born Quilter, discovered his love of the craft through learning to sew and quilt in the spring of 2016. Fast forward ten years and over 70 quilts later, Brett has attended Spring and Fall International Quilt Markets, with his work and original patterns showcased in Birch Fabric's, Hobbs Batting, Electric Quilt and his very own Quilt Market booth. He has been featured in the Designer Profile section of the acclaimed magazine Love Patchwork and Quilting, the Quilter's Planner, various podcasts, CBC Radio, CTV Edmonton and Regina News, and instructs his very own EQ8 designed quilt patterns, with classes focusing on foundation paper piecing, fussy cutting, and curves. His quilting adventures have taken him to attend an Alaska quilting cruise, becoming a certified Sew Kind of Wonderful Instructor, and a BERNINA Canada Ambassador. And to come full circle, Brett has designed five fabric collections for Northcott Fabrics, showcasing his love for nature's flora and fauna. Brett describes his quilting style as Contemporary Traditional, using contemporary vibrant and bold fabrics with traditional patterns.

Find Brett on Instagram or Facebook @naturalbornquilter, or check out his website www.naturalbornquilter.com for NBQ events and his online store.

Hope to see you at the meeting! Ruth Lenarduzzi ctgg.programme@gmail.com

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE—Janice Namiesniowski

March always arrives with a quiet shift—longer days, clearer light, and that subtle spark of energy that nudges us back toward our sewing rooms. It's a month that invites both momentum and reflection, and I've been thinking about how quilting holds space for both. Some projects call us forward with fresh excitement; others ask us to slow down, revisit our intentions, and enjoy the rhythm of steady stitching.

I've been inspired by the work shared at our recent meetings and retreats. The range of creativity in this guild—bold modern pieces, thoughtful traditional designs, and everything in between—reminds me how much we learn from one another simply by showing up with our hands and our stories. When you share a work in progress or a finished quilt, you spark ideas in someone else, often without even realizing it. Let's share and inspire everyone at the upcoming Quilt Show in June...plan to show your quilt.

As we move into spring, I hope you'll lean into whatever part of the creative cycle you're in. Maybe you're tackling a UFO that's been waiting patiently. Maybe you're starting something new that feels a little outside your comfort zone. Maybe you're experimenting quietly, just for the joy of it. All of it matters, and all of it enriches our guild.

Thank you for the generosity, curiosity, and warmth you bring to this community. Every stitch you make adds to the fabric of who we are together. Wishing you a month filled with colour, calm, and renewed inspiration.

A few reminders as we move through the month:

- ★ Quilt Panel Challenge: The challenge continues, with completed quilts due in May. If you can, take a "before" photo of your panel — sometimes it's hard to spot the original fabric once your creativity takes over. (Some panels have been known to disappear entirely under enthusiastic piecing.)
- ★ Sew and Share: Please send your photos to Marian (ctqg.newslettereditor@gmail.com) for our March Zoom meeting.

Warm regards, Janice Namiesniowski, President, Common Thread Quilt Guild ctqg.president@gmail.com

VIRTUAL SEW DAYS, WINTER 2025—Ruth Oswald

Ruth Oswald will be hosting Virtual Sew days, 9:00 am to 4:30 pm on:

- Saturday March 14

Stay warm and cozy, avoiding icy roads and parking lots! To attend, register ahead of time by emailing ctgg.sewdays@gmail.com and you will be sent a Zoom link for each Virtual Sew Day. You don't need to attend for the entire day – you can join and leave whenever you want, take a break to walk the dog, run an errand etc. We can even set up Zoom "Rooms" for small groups.

At the last Virtual Sew Day, we did an experiment to confirm that Zoom's noise suppression algorithm really works: four of us ran our sewing machines right beside our computer or mobile device – and we never heard a stitch! Mind you, we can hear other background sounds like radios, TVs, pets, and your side conversation with your spouse, so keep that in mind.

Questions? Email Ruth at ctgg.sewdays@gmail.com

IN PERSON SEW DAYS, SPRING 2026—Joanne Villeneuve & Cathy Caron-Tatta

Dates for the upcoming in person sew days are as follows: April 11, May 9, and June 13, 2026

CTQG 2026 QUILT SHOW—MEMBERS' MARKET INFORMATION—Catherine Parkinson

The Members' Market at the CTQG Quilt Show is a place where Guild members can sell their sewn or quilted items. At the last Quilt Show we had a good response to our Members' Market.

To participate in the Members' Market, you must be a member of the Common Thread Quilt Guild and you must do a shift of volunteering at the Market table either at setup, during the show or at take down.

Market registration forms will be sent to sellers that must be completed, listing each item and the selling price. These forms and items must be brought to Catherine Parkinson before the Quilt Show (between June 5th and June 10th).

The show is June 12th and 13th so there are four months to make and gather the items to sell.

Please contact me if you have any questions, or if you wish to intend to participate in the Market. My email address is: ctqg.quiltshow.market@gmail.com.

COMMUNITY PROJECTS - Elizabeth Barr

Happy March!

Only one more zoom meeting to go before we all are in person once again! A few friendly reminders please:

- Ensure any finished quilts being brought to Community Projects are labelled with a CTQG label on them. Reach out to me if you need any labels before our April meeting; otherwise bring a needle, thread and scissors with you so you can sew a label on during the meeting if you need to.
- Anyone who is working on a Community Projects Challenge Quilt is asked to hold onto them until our May meeting. Also, safety pin a sleeve as per the instructions provided to DOUBLE your chances at winning!
- Not a big ask, but a REALLY BIG help: If donating tops or finished quilts, please note your name and the size of the top or quilt on a slip of paper sent along with it - that makes the intake and subsequent sorting go a lot faster. We thank you immensely in advance.

Many thanks,
Elizabeth

Friendly Reminders:

- ★ All finished quilts need labels. We will provide a label, needle and thread and ask that you sew one on during the meeting if not already attached.
- ★ Fabrics with any reference to violence and/or alcohol/substance use must be avoided.

Quilts of the following sizes are always appreciated:

- ⇒ Cuddle quilts - 22" square
- ⇒ Wheelchair quilts - 36" x 36" to 36" x 40"
- ⇒ Kids quilts from crib to twin
 - 40" x 40" to 60" x 72" (older teens may be tall)
- ⇒ Adult Twin and Queen size quilts
 - 60" x 75" or larger
- ⇒ Comfort quilts - 50" x 60"

Feel free to stop by the table, say hello & sign out a kit.
Outside of meetings, you can reach me at ctqg.community.projects@gmail.com and am always happy to answer questions.

WORKSHOPS WINTER 2025 —Heather Wolczanski and Joanne Villeneuve

FAUX CATHEDRAL WINDOWS By Michelle Van Dyke

Date: March 28, 2026 Time: 9:30 am - 4:00 pm (in-person)

Location: Notre Dames des Champs Community Centre

Cost: $60 (supplies not included)

Class Description: This workshop invites quilters to explore the elegant illusion of cathedral windows - without the hand-sewn curves! Using the Faux Cathedral Windows pattern from Bits & Pieces Quilting, participants will learn how to create dimensional blocks that mimic the classic look with clever folding and stitching techniques. Make a quilt or a table runner, both available in beginner and advanced options.

Beginner Option - focuses on the main cathedral windows block and offers an easy finishing option with straightforward construction

Advanced Option - introduces a more advanced construction option that is more time consuming, but so worth the effort!

Whether you are new to quilting or looking to elevate your skills, this workshop delivers inspiration, technique, and a touch of textile magic.

Improv for Planners By Monika Henry

Date: May 23, 2026 Time: 9:30 am - 4:00 pm (in-person)

Location: Notre Dames des Champs Community Centre Cost: $60 (supplies not included)

Class Description: Are you overwhelmed or intimidated by improv quilt techniques? Do you feel like you're too much of a planner to enjoy making a quilt without knowing what it's going to look like, and possibly "ruining" fabric in the process?

Join Monika Henry for Improv For Planners, a full-day workshop where she teaches you her easy, not-intimidating method of making an improv quilt while still having control and structure throughout the process. And yes, the use of rulers is very much encouraged ;-)

About the Instructor: Monika is the designer and teacher behind Penny Spool Quilts, based in Ottawa, Canada, where she creates bright, modern quilt designs with a nod to tradition. Her own quilting journey started a bit over 20 years ago, when she was at university in Switzerland, with traditional patterns done the traditional way. And while she calls herself a modern quilter now, she still takes inspiration from traditional blocks and designs and tweaks them to suit her taste for modern fabrics, colours, and bold shapes.

WORKSHOP REGISTRATION INFO AND PAYMENT POLICIES ARE ON THE FOLLOWING PAGE

HOW TO REGISTER AND PAY FOR A WORKSHOP:

Register for any workshop by sending an email to ctgg.workshops@gmail.com. Payment for any workshop can be done by e-transfer. Send all workshop fees to ctgg.treasurer@gmail.com.

Payment Policy for Workshops:

You will not be considered registered for a workshop until you have paid for your spot in full. For your convenience, we accept e-transfers to ctgg.treasurer@gmail.com payable within 2 days of signing up. You may also send a cheque by mail to the Common Thread Quilt Guild. If you mail a cheque, please inform the workshop coordinator at ctgg.workshops@gmail.com that payment is on the way. Your spot can not be "held" without payment. Placing your name on the list without payment does not guarantee you a space. We understand that a registrant may not be able to attend a workshop for any number of worthy reasons, but to ensure that a workshop does not have to be cancelled at the last minute because of withdrawals, no refunds or credits will be issued unless the workshop is cancelled by the Guild. If we are given enough notice and are able to fill your spot, we can then offer you a refund.

CTQG QUILT SHOW NEWS! - Tammy Davies

CTQG QUILT SHOW

Friday, June 12th and Saturday, June 13th, 2026
Blackburn Hamlet (Lois Kemp) Arena

Three months and counting! Our Show opens on June 12th at the Lois Kemp Arena in Blackburn Hamlet. The venue may be new, but the CTQG will continue with its tradition of bringing together 200 wonderful quilts and quilted items.

Quilt Registration begins on April 1st and runs until May 5th.

Elizabeth Barr and Carole Maisoneuve have been working tirelessly these past few months to create a seamless registration process that meets your needs as well as those of the volunteers putting the Show together. You'll hear directly from Elizabeth and Carole about our exclusively online registration system. And not to worry, they have developed supports to help those of you who may be inexperienced with this type of online process.

SAVE THE DATE!!!!!!

April 1, 2026—ONLINE REGISTRATION of Quilts for the show begins. The quilt does not have to be completed, just enough to be recognizable in a photo.

As well, ONLINE VOLUNTEER sign up begins.

April 1st is also the launch date for Volunteer Registration. Lise Paradis has created a wonderful system that allows our members to register themselves for the volunteer shifts they prefer and easily share this information with friends. Whether it's White Glove Ambassador, Admissions Attendant, Security, Set-up or Take-down, there's a position, or two, waiting for you. It's great fun being part of the action at the Show!

So...keep quilting and get ready to kick into action on April 1st.

As in the past, the success of Quilt Show 2026 rests on the shoulders of our volunteers. There is a role for everyone—white glove, admissions, security, set up or tear down. Our Volunteer Coordinator, Lise Paradis, has made some wonderful changes to the volunteer registration process which will get underway in April. So, please, give some thought to volunteering for a shift or two. Those who volunteer will receive free admission to the show on the day they volunteer.

Finally, we would like to have a memorial table at the quilt show to remember CTQG members who have passed away since our last show. The table would display a photo, short biography and perhaps a memento of the deceased. Please submit any suggestions to me at ctgg.quilt.show@gmail.com by April 1st.

Happy Quilting! Tammy and the 2026 Quilt Show Committee,

LIBRARY NEWS—Veronica Baker

Happy March everyone!

Our library will reopen at our next in person meeting in April, 2026.

Looking for a book? The full library catalogue is available online at the CTQG website Common Thread Quilt Guild, under Resources. From there you can reserve a book using the form on the library page.

Done any decluttering in the Quilt Studio? Books can be Donated to CTQG Library. However, the published date must be within the last 10 years. The books can be added to the library if we don't carry it, or it can be added to the annual used book sale.

Any questions or suggestions come and see us or drop us a line at ctgg.library@gmail.com Sharron and I look forward to seeing you at the next meeting.

The CTQG Library provides an opportunity for members to borrow books that cover many aspects of quilting.

It is a lot of work to keep the library running smoothly and more volunteers are needed to help in the library.

Briefly, library volunteers help place books out, check in books that are being returned, check books out and put away books when the library closes.

A sign up sheet is currently being designed and will be available in April. You will be able to select which of the tasks that you are willing to help with and for how many months.

If you are able to offer assistance or have any questions, please contact me at ctgg.library@gmail.com.

ACQUILT GO! CUTTERS—Joanne Villeneuve & Cathy Caron-Tatta

Two Accuquilt Go! and one Accuquilt Go Me! cutters and dies are available to Guild members during In-Person Sew Days and Retreats.

Members are free to drop by and cut their fabric during these times and are not obliged to pay for the Sew Day or Retreat if they stay for only a short time and only for the use of the Accu-quilt. For example, one is free to drop by with pre-ironed fabric and use the Accu-quilt for a short time. If your cutting time is preventing paying participants from ready access to the Accuquilt, or if you plan to use the iron for other than a quick touch-up, then perhaps paying for the day is warranted.

Plan ahead to cut out a quilt or just some blocks or appliques at the next SewDay or retreat.

Check out the complete list of dies as well as handy tips for using the cutter at <https://commonthreadquiltguild.ca/resources/accuquilt-fabric-cutter/>

ARE YOU LOOKING TO JOIN A QUILTING GROUP?

Look no further! The Gloucester 50+ Centre located at 4355 Belmont Drive (Pat Clark Community Centre) has drop-in quilting activities Mondays and Tuesdays from 9 am to 12 pm for those who are 50+.

You can bring your sewing machine, hand sewing, knitting or just come to chat and socialize with other quilters. You can join us for the whole 4 hours or not, it is totally up to you.

Rulers, irons, cutting boards, etc., are available. No set-up or take-down involved. At the end of the day, just put supplies back in the quilting storage cabinet. Oh, no need to bring lunch. There is a Food Services where you can still buy a sandwich for $3.00 and a good homemade soup. Of course, you may bring your lunch and socialize with the quilters in the lunchroom. Lunch is served at 12 pm

Membership at the Centre is $40 per year. The membership year is September 1 to August 31. New members will have a pro-rated membership one time only. Membership allows access to all drop in programs and registration for exercise and other classes. There is a $2 drop-in fee for each week you attend quilting. You can receive a one-time guest pass for the first time you visit the centre. For information regarding the Gloucester 50+ Centre activities visit the website. Home - Gloucester 50+ Centre.

The quilting group welcome people whether you are a Guild member or not. This is not a Guild activity though many are CTQG members. We enjoy day quilting amongst others who share our interest. We help each other with advice or techniques, have space for cutting and and laying out and then cheer each other finished quilts.
